Fire Damages Weirton Steel Company Plant

Largest Tinplate Mill In World
Scene Of Blaze

WEIRTON, W. Va., May 2.—(INS)—A flash fire roared through the world's largest tinplate mill at the Weirton Steel company early today causing damage estimated at "several hundred thousand dollars."

Firemen from Weirton and four surrounding communities fought for more than two hours to extinguish the blaze, believed to have started in an oil hydraulic system of the No. 4 electrolytic line. Robert Hayes, a motor inspector, said a column of flames roared to the roof in one blinding flash. The flames swept through the department. Hundreds of employees in the department had less than five minutes to make their escape.

Plants Knocked Out
All four tinplating lines in the plant were knocked out of commission. The full fury of the fire was spent in about five minutes, firemen said, but it took hours to put out the smaller fires throughout the mill.

Weirton Fire Chief John A. Ferguson said foremen and turn safety captains led the workers to safety. There was no panic. A locker room in which the workers stored their street clothes was destroyed completely.

A company spokesman said the loss is covered by insurance, which includes loss of production. But the firm could not immediately estimate the loss in terms of dollars.

Crews of repairmen went to work immediately to put the huge (Continued on Page Two)

Dilworth Is Visitor Here

Governor Candidate Meets Local Voters

Richardson Dilworth, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, met several hundred Lawrence county voters Monday afternoon when a reception was held for him in the New Penn Hotel.

His visit was more in the nature of a get-acquainted trip rather than a campaign visit, inasmuch as he is assured of the party nomination.

Reorganize Government
"If elected governor, I would like to see a reorganization of the state government," said he. "I am convinced that at least 2,000 jobs could be eliminated and a huge financial savings made if we did reorganize it. My idea would be a sort of little Hoover commission and this commission I would appoint immediately after the election in order to have something tangible for the General Assembly."

"We have a tremendous task ahead of us in the next four years. We must raise about 300 million dollars in taxes over and above the present biennial budget requirement." (Continued on Page Two)

Folks who have been wondering when spring was going to arrive should take a heart. A year ago this week, the temperature got up into the 80's, and hit the 90 mark on May 5. Kids went swimming in the pool below the East Washington street bridge in the Neshannock.

Two weeks from today will be primary election day in New Castle and Lawrence County, with voters making selection of candidate for the parties for state and national offices.

Mayor Collapses At Mosinee, Wis. After 'Red' Program

MOSINEE, Wis., May 2.—(INS)—Mayor Ralph A. Kronenwetter, who suffered a stroke and collapsed at the close of Mosinee's "one day of communism," was reported unconscious and in "serious" condition today in St. Mary's hospital in nearby Wausau, Wis.

A hospital spokesman said Kronenwetter was partially paralyzed and under an oxygen tent. He has received the last rites of the church.

The portly mayor was routed out of bed at dawn by "communists", and forced to spend an hour on the grandstand in chilly "Red" square before reading a proclamation surrendering the city to the communists.

Mayor Kronenwetter, 49, had previously suffered high blood pressure and underwent a chilling experience Sunday when he stepped into a sinkhole in a cold stream while trout fishing.

Tag Steve Cochran As Least Likely To Marry In 1950

HOLLYWOOD, May 2.—(INS)—Steve Cochran, husky Warner Bros. actor, today bore the tag of "the man least likely to get married in 1950."

It was pinned on him by the Bachelor Girls' club of Houston, Texas, which had a scroll made up for him to go with the title.

The scroll was presented by Leila Nelson, president of the group, who said:

"We understand that you are a very cagey fellow who seems to play the field romantically speaking."

"Inasmuch as you are continually with a new girl and rarely with the same girl more than twice, we figured that your chances of settling down this year were the most remote."

Named runners-up were Clifton Webb "because he must be wise to all of the man-catching tricks," Farley Granger "because he apparently isn't able to make up his mind," and Cesar Romero "because we just imagine he would rather live alone."

Pittsburgh Grocer Wounded By Bandits

PITTSBURGH, May 2.—(INS)—A 64-year-old Pittsburgh grocer fought for his life today from two bullet wounds suffered during an attempted robbery of his store.

Allegheny General hospital authorities reported Stephen M. Bassick was in serious condition from one wound under the heart and another just below the left armpit.

Police searched the north side neighborhood for a black coupe automobile and later seen near Bassick's store.

Perry Highway Station Burns

Filling Station And Restaurant North Of Harlansburg Razed

A Washington Township gasoline filling station and restaurant was completely destroyed by fire at 8:30 this morning. Loss is estimated at $12,000 and is only partially covered by insurance.

The station was owned by William Glenn of Zelienople who discovered the flames in the basement. He immediately sounded the alarm which was answered by the Mercer, New Wilmington, and Hickory fire companies.

Spreads Rapidly
The fire was believed to have started in the oil furnace in the basement and was fed by large quantities of oil stored there. The flames spread rapidly and the entire frame building was entirely consumed in a little over a half hour.

The station was located five and a half miles north of Harlansburg, on route 19 (Perry Highway).

Because of the oil flames and the intense heat there was little that firemen could do to save the building and its many restaurant furnishings.

There was a small explosion of oil in the basement that accompanied the fire but the buried gasoline storage tanks were not harmed and did not explode.

Senator Taft Is Unopposed

But Seven Democrats Battle To Face Him

COLUMBUS, O., May 2.—(INS)—U. S. Senator Robert Taft, a top Republican policy chief, is unopposed for re-nomination in Ohio's primary elections today but seven Democrats are fighting for the right to face him in November.

State Auditor James T. Ferguson is given the edge over Mayor Michael V. Di Salle of Toledo, his major opponent for the Democratic Senatorial nomination. Other contestants include Henry M. Busch, Western Reserve University professor and Walter A. Kelley, Cincinnati lawyer.

Democratic Gov. Frank Lausche faces only token opposition from two candidates and is expected to coast into re-nomination.

The hot fight is on the Republican side of the ticket where State Treasurer Don Ebricht is favored for the gubernatorial nomination over Mayor James A. Rhodes of Columbus and former Secretary of State Edward J. Hummel, of Cincinnati, his leading opponents.

Japanese Communist Party Is Attacked By MacArthur

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
Far Eastern Director
(International News Service)

TOKYO, May 2.—Gen. Douglas MacArthur attacked the Japanese Communist party tonight in a strong statement questioning "its right to the further benefits and protection of the country and laws it would subvert."

The allied supreme commander issued his statement on the eve of tomorrow's third anniversary of the new Japanese constitution which he praised by saying "history may finally point to the Japanese constitution as the magna carta of free Asia."

Warning To Japanese

MacArthur's warning about the Japanese party was so strong that observers believe the Japanese authorities might interpret it as permission to outlaw the communists.

The general himself last July 4 said there was reason to question whether communism, which he called "national and international outlawry," should "any longer be (Continued on Page Two)

Harmony Short Line Drivers Are Out On Strike

PITTSBURGH, May 2.—(INS)—Nearly 150,000 Harmony Short Line bus riders looked for other means of transportation today in the Allegheny Valley and areas north of Pittsburgh.

Ninety-one regularly scheduled buses ceased running at 2:45 a. m. EDT today as 130 drivers served a strike notice to enforce their demands for a 23-cents hourly wage increase.

Company and union representatives had been negotiating the last three weeks to draft a new pact to replace the contract which expired Sunday.

The drivers are members of Division 1067, AFL Amalgamated Street, Electric and Motor Coach Employees.

Intervention by federal mediators last year led to a wage increase for the drivers and prevented a strike.

Strike of the Harmony Short Line drivers, who went out this morning to enforce a demand for higher wages, has stopped all bus transportation from this city to points east and south, in Pennsylvania, which are served by the Harmony Line.

The Harmony Short Line operates south as far as Pittsburgh, southeast to Johnstown, via Butler, Kittanning, and Indiana, and northeast to Oil City. At these points, the Harmony connects with other carriers for points within the state.

Gen. Bradley Asks Draft Law Extension

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(INS)—Gen. Omar Bradley declared today that there has been "no improvement" in United States-Soviet relations and called upon Congress to extend the draft law as insurance against a possible "armed attack."

The chairman of the joint chiefs of staff endorsed a proposal by Rep. Vinson (D Ga.) for a compromise law providing for a two year continuation of registration and classification of 18 year olds. The draft set-up would be maintained on a stand-by basis pending further congressional action.

President Truman asked Congress to continue the existing law to expire on June 24 for three years without change. However, Vinson's proposal provided for no further inductions unless Congress authorized them through passage of a concurrent resolution finding that a national emergency existed.

MIAMI, FLA.—Rep. George Smathers (dark suit) is congratulated by supporters as he winds up his rip-roaring campaign against Sen. Claude Pepper for the latter's seat in the Senate here. Dining Out Schedule Today Is Ordeal For First Lady

By MARTHA KEARNEY
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Today is the day when all the other girls in the United States—particularly those with bird-like appetites—can be grateful that they never grew up to be the first lady of the land. Bess Wallace Truman is committed today to a dining out schedule that must make her long for the simple pleasures of a quiet afternoon of bridge with the girls back home in Independence, Mo.

Breakfast Event

Mrs. Truman's first official engagement of the day is the annual breakfast given in her honor by the Congressional club.

The "breakfast," which provides each guest with enough victuals for a gang with enough victuals to last for a week, begins at 11:45 a. m. It is usually good for three-and-a-half hours of oratory and entertainment.

Today the first lady will be on hand to applaud the speeches but she will undoubtedly skip the entertainment furnished by composer-pianist Mario Braggiotti.

Mrs. Truman will have to cut (Continued on Page Two)

Start Trial Of College Student

COLUMBUS, O., May 2.—(INS)—Testimony is expected to begin today in the first-degree murder trial of James D. Heer, 20-year-old Ohio State university freshman from Euclid, O.

Heer is accused of the "fraternity row" shooting November 12 of his friend and fraternity brother, Jack T. McKeown, 21, of Norwood, O., an Ohio State senior and managing editor of the Ohio State Lantern, the university's student newspaper.

Seven women and two men were selected as prospective jurors as the trial opened yesterday in Franklin county criminal court. Defense Attorney Matthew L. Bigger, indicated by his questions Heer's defense will be drunkenness.

All prospective jurors were asked if they would be influenced or prejudiced by "drunkenness at the time of the alleged act" and would follow the instructions of Judge John R. King in applying the law to an intoxication case.

State's Rights Issue Seen In Alabama Primary Vote Today

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 2.—(INS)—An estimated 400,000 Alabamians began voting today to choose a governor, a senator, nine congressmen and a 72-man committee that can dictate whom the one-party state will vote for in the 1952 Presidential race.

Election of that powerful Democratic executive committee will tell political observers in the nation whether the rank and file voter is behind the States Rights movement.

Both the States' Righters and the "Loyalist" group have declared themselves for States' Rights and against President Truman's civil rights program.

The disagreement is whether it is best to fight the program inside or outside the party. The States' Righters say outside and the Loyalists say inside.

Budenz And Sen. McCarthy Are Assailed

Blistering Statement Given To Senate Loyalty Investigators

By WILLIAM THEIS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Owen Lattimore charged today that he has been "criminally libeled" by Sen. McCarthy (R Wis.), and accused McCarthy's chief witness, ex-Communist Louis Budenz of being a "liar," a "paid informer" and an "unscrupulous finger man."

Lattimore, Far East expert and university professor alleged by McCarthy to be the "top Soviet espionage agent" in America, declared the senator's charges are "not supported by a shred of evidence, perjured or otherwise."

Blistering Statement

The angry witness delivered before senate loyalty investigators one of the most blistering vehement sworn statements in congressional history.

He accused McCarthy of being a "bad policy risk" who hurled "false and malicious" charges from the "foxhole of immunity on the senate floor" and said that Budenz is either a "plain old-fashioned liar or a pathological liar."

Lattimore said he has been "vilified" by a motley crew of crackpots, professional informers, hysterics, and ex-Communists who McCarthy would have you believe represent "sound Americanism."

Repeats Denial

The Johns Hopkins University professor repeated his denial that he ever had been a Communist spy, a member of the Communist party, or a Red sympathizer. He then loosed a stinging counterblast at McCarthy. Lattimore said:

"I have never been accused of 'bad policy risk' or of income tax evasion, or of the destruction of records, that were in my official (Continued on Page Two)

Settlement Of Chrysler Strike Believed Near

(By International News Service)

DETROIT, May 2.—Chrysler strike negotiators, refreshed by a five-hour rest after 63½ hours of continuous bargaining, today turned to the job of "wrapping up" a final settlement of the 98-day-old CIO-United Auto Workers walk-out.

The company and union bargainers broke off their unprecedented conference—the longest continuous session in automotive history—at 4:30 a. m. (EST) today because they were "just too tired to work."

Negotiations were resumed at 9 a. m. (EST) with a stiff warning from Federal Mediator E. M. Sweeney that they "will keep on going until a contract is signed." Sweeney indicated the bargainers will begin another marathon session, if necessary, to write the contract providing $100 monthly pensions and other benefits to the 89,000 strikers.

A Chrysler spokesman yesterday maintained a "verbal agreement" had been reached.

The flowers that bloomed in the spring tra-la, last spring is the one that I mean, are withered and brown from the long winter chill, and only the weeds are green. Why couldn't those flowers come up every year and save me the planting I do, and soon as the spring comes a-busting around, with a rush they'd come galloping through. But only the weeds seem to last for the spring, the flowers look something like hay, so off with the old crop and in with the new, and it's warm, seventy-seven today.

Woman Is Found Dead At Bessemer

Mrs. Virginia Cikovich Glavan, aged 25 years, wife of Edward Glavan, 11th street, Bessemer, was found dead in the living room of their apartment by members of the family at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. Mrs. Glavan, who had been ill for the past month, had taken her own life, using an automatic pistol her husband had brought home as a souvenir from the late war, Coroner Charles E. Allen stated. She had muffled the sound of the shot by placing a pillow over her head, shooting herself through the right temple.

Born July 7, 1924, in Bessemer, she was a daughter of Louis and Mary Kinkela Cikovich. She was united in marriage to Edward Glavan December 1, 1945.

custody, or of improperly using an official position for the purpose of advancing his own fortunes, political or otherwise."

Lattimore said bitterly that "so long as a reckless and irresponsible man like Joseph McCarthy is in a position to abuse the privileges of the United States congress, the quality of a man's life and activities, however impeccable, does not protect him from vile assault." He continued:

"Even our greatest living American, Gen. Marshall, has been subjected to McCarthy's vicious, dastardly and repeated insult."

This was in reference to McCarthy's charge that Marshall was "pathetic" as secretary of state. Lattimore scornfully dismissed the testimony of ex-British Communist Freda Uley, who testified yesterday that while she did not know him to be a Communist he had been a "Judas Cow" for the party line. Lattimore called her story "Rambling, discursive, distorted and false."

But he leveled the main thrust of his 61-page statement at Budenz, declaring:

"Despite all of the senator's flourishes, promises and threats, he has produced only one witness who has even come within shouting distance of the senator's own wild charges."

Lattimore said that Budenz, in accusing him of having been a member of a Communist cell, "is dutifully pursuing his profession of paid informer and unscrupulous finger man." He labeled Budenz' testimony a "shabby, sordid and feeble invention" and as "pure moonshine, or rather impure hogwash."

accorded the validity, the sanction and the protection of law."

A Japanese government spokesman at the time said the government would welcome a go-ahead from MacArthur to outlaw the party in Japan.

In his new statement MacArthur said that communism, once sent into virtual eclipse by public opinion, now "has cast off the mantle of pretended legitimacy and assumed instead the role of an avowed satellite of an international predatory force and a Japanese pawn of alien power policy, imperialistic purpose, and subversive propaganda."

Then MacArthur raised the question of whether the party "should longer be regarded as a constitutionally recognized political movement operating under the freedom benefits conferred by the Japanese constitution."

He called for calm consideration of this "anti-social" question, and said it was one that confronts other nations besides the Japanese.

DINING OUT SCHEDULE TODAY IS ORDEAL FOR FIRST LADY

breakfast a little short to rush off to a luncheon being given in her honor by the Chamber of Commerce at 1:30 p. m.

Luncheon Also

The luncheon, too, promises to provide impressive helpings of substantial food and the usual quota of speeches. If it follows the usual course it will last for about three hours.

The first lady will just about have time to get back to Blair House and chat with her daughter Margaret, expected from New York today, when she will have to face a formal dinner.

This, of course, is the "unofficial" dinner being given by the president and first lady in honor of Pearl Mesta, U. S. minister to Luxembourg.

Dinner Guests

There will be between 18 and 20 guests at the dinner for the former No. 1 administration hostess.

Mrs. Truman will be able to rest up from the rigors of the day tomorrow morning.

She and Margaret Truman, however, will attend a reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Austin between 5 and 7 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Then they will have to rush back to Blair House to prepare for the state dinner being given in honor of the prime minister of Pakistan and the Begum Liaquat Ali Khan.

Any girl may grow up to be first lady—but she had better make sure she has plenty of stamina before she starts thinking about it seriously.

U. S. TO REJECT BRITISH PLAN

their responsibilities in India and Pakistan.

These commitments total more than five billion dollars and result from the reserves of blocked sterling piled up in London for goods and services rendered the United Kingdom during the war.

Acheson's refusal to meet the British requests are based on practical matters. These include:

1. The present strong desire of the U. S. to sustain the countries of southeast Asia against communism through allocations of defense equipment and a limited amount of point four technical and economic aid.

2. The fact that the legislative program for foreign policy is already lagging far behind schedule and would only be further imperiled if new requests for funds were introduced at this time.

Gag Writer For Bob Hope Dies Suddenly

HOLLYWOOD, May 2.—(INS)—An autopsy will be performed today on the body of Paul Laven, 43, who died suddenly yesterday while at work writing gags for Bob Hope.

DILWORTH IS VISITOR HERE

ments. This cannot be raised by a lot of nuisance taxes, it goes deeper than that.

"The present administration of Governor Duff has spent money recklessly. Mr. Duff went into office with a $67,000,000 surplus. All of this has gone and with it millions more. It's time for Pennsylvania to give some thought to economy."

Handsome Man

Mr. Dilworth is in the "handsome" class in appearance. Under 50 years of age, he has the carriage of a man who has served in the military forces, and he did, serving in the second World War with the marines.

Following his return to the practice of law he ran for mayor of Philadelphia and was elected in an amazing upset of the Republican forces.

Mrs. Dilworth accompanied her husband to New Castle.

"This is a beautiful part of Pennsylvania," said she. "I like your rolling hills and the spectacular valleys you have. While of course I like Philadelphia, I believe I would like to live in this part of the state."

John B. Shaw, chairman of the Democratic County committee, was in charge of the reception. Mr. Dilworth spoke briefly to the crowd, outlining the need for party harmony if the Democratic ticket is to win this fall.

Following his appearance here, the candidate and his party left for Beaver Falls, where he was to speak at a dinner meeting.

Silence Ordered For Frank Sinatra

NEW YORK, May 2.—(INS)—

Frank (The Voice) Sinatra was left utterly speechless today by what his doctor described as "the equivalent of a black eye in his left vocal chord."

The foul blow was dealt to Sinatra, Dr. Irving Goldman said, by none other than the crooner himself. Singing "Bali H'ai" in the dinner show at Manhattan's Copacabana, Sinatra tried to get the "H'ai" higher.

Sinatra's normal range, the physician said, is two octaves. When he tried to leave the baritone-tenor class and make the soprano grade, the left vocal chord suffered a "subucosal hemorrhage."

Complete silence for the next 10 days was prescribed for the crooner by the throat specialist, Sinatra, Dr. Goldman said, must refrain not only from singing, but even from talking if he is to open May 12 as scheduled in a Chicago night club.

Sinatra's cronies said that to keep quiet, Frankie will leave New York today for an undisclosed vacation spot.

WAS IT OUR MISTAKE?
Well, we just wonder if we have made another mistake. It has been wet weather, hard to get things done, and keep your place looking nice. But, we found three beautiful trees, and decided while the getting was good, that we would have them planted on our lawn. The weather interfered, and it was quite a job, but we finally got through with it.
When we stood back and admired the beautiful improvement we had made to our property, at considerable expense, we just had a vision, and we wondered if we had made a mistake, as we got to thinking that we were in an "A" Zone, and we shouldn't have planted those trees, without getting permission from the City authorities. Now, the question is, will we have to dig them up, or what?

Woman's Club Captivated By Musical Arts Trio

Carlisle once said that "music is well said to be the speech of the angels." Members of the Woman's Club found this statement true as they listened spellbound to the lovely music of the Musical Arts Trio on Monday afternoon at the Highland U. P. church.

The group was welcomed by Mrs. C. R. Brenner, president. "We are happy to have with us three of New Castle's outstanding artists," said Mrs. Clarence Davis, program chairman. Anthony Casper, violinist, is the conductor of the New Castle Symphony which has closed its second successful season. He will also conduct the Youth Symphony. Edwin Lewis, pianist, is the organist and director of music at the First Methodist church and musical advisor of the Symphony. Tom Wiand, principal cellist of the Symphony, is unable to leave the Baldwin and Wallace Conservatory, and will be replaced today by Alfred Armocida, cellist, of Pittsburgh, a close friend of the trio.

Gay Melodies
Announcing the program, Mr. Casper stated that the first number would be "Minuet" by Boccherini. This light, gay melody proved to be a favorite of the audience. Piere's "Serenade" displayed charming contrasts, developing from quiet strains to those of exceptional brilliancy and fire. The spirited, fascinating "Bolero" by Moszkowski, was brought to a dramatic close amid the thunderous applause of the club members.

Following a short intermission, the well-known artists presented the "Trio number two in B Flat Major" by the incomparable Mozart. The allegro movement showed a certain power and strength before moving into the accents of timidity of the larghetto passage, and concluding with measures which brought the number to a spirited, merry close.

The club women were reluctant to come back to the world about them after enjoying such a varied program of music with universal appeal. The trio was congratulated for their excellent musical ability.

Officers Installed
Mrs. J. Edward Everett conducted the installation of new club officers. Calling the group before the assembly, Mrs. Everett held impressive services, welcoming in turn each of the officers. Mrs. Wilbur Flannery is the club's president; Mrs. C. R. Brenner, first vice president; Mrs. G. Wilfert Thomas, second vice president; Mrs. Louis Sandler, recording secretary; Mrs. E. L. Thompson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Simon Skole, treasurer; Mrs. John Ingham, historian; and Mrs. W. L. Strawbridge, parliamentarian.

"I hope," said Mrs. Everett, "that you are entering office with the realization of your responsibilities. Club work is a cooperative affair, with many important decisions to be made." She then presented the president's gavel to Mrs. Flannery, who responded graciously. Mrs. Brenner, retiring president, presented Mrs. Flannery with a lovely orchid, who in turn gave Mrs. Brenner her past president's pin.

The group then assembled in the church parlor where tea was enjoyed. The entire room was decorated with festive arrangements of magnolias, forsythias, daisies, and jonquils. Mrs. Andrew Dietterle and Mrs. Thomas G. Allen of the Conservation and Garden department had charge of the decorations. An unusual display of forsythia and jonquils centered the tea table, at which Mrs. Brenner and Mrs. Flannery presided.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Thomas G. Paden, Mrs. Clarence Sadler, Mrs. C. L. Brenneman, and Mrs. S. R. Hoffman.

Amidst a lovely setting of spring flowers and yellow tapers, members of Jean Hill Williamson Missionary society honored their mothers and daughters at a dinner in the dining room of Highland U. P. church, Monday evening. Following the invocation by Mrs. C. Fred Hainforth, a delicious dinner was served by the Naomi Circle.

Mrs. Frank L. Burton, president, welcomed the guests at the close of serving. Many members of the Highland King's Daughters group, the society of teen-age girls, sponsored by the older group, were present with their sponsors, Mrs. Russell Tait and Mrs. Harold Philpott.

Miss Harriet Miller, president of the younger group, was introduced and she graciously responded. Mrs. Burton and Miss Miller participated in a beautiful ceremony, in which a rose was presented to each of the ten members of Jean Hill Williamson, who were accompanied by their mothers. As each daughter introduced her mother, she pinned the rose upon her. Mrs. F. W. Hutchison, J. H. W. Mother of 1949, was welcomed by the group.

Miss Sara McKee, who recently returned from three years' missionary service in Egypt, was presented as the visiting speaker. Her subject, "A Short Term's Travels," was illustrated by many beautiful colored slides taken on her trip through Egypt, the Sudan, Palestine and Europe.

Mrs. Robert Dickson and her committee, Mrs. Richard J. Davis, Miss Margaret McCreary, Mrs. Robert A. SECRECY VS. SECURITY

Congress is in the throes of voting more money for defense than the President's budget called for. It is reacting to the feeling that the threat of war is growing. But Congress is not doing much, if anything, about a greater peril.

This is the danger that the American people will allow themselves to be frightened into errors that will invite an attack and insure their defeat. The danger exists, though it is not as apparent as others that force themselves upon the public attention day after day. Some voices have already cried out that military secrecy is being imposed to such an extent that the people are unable to make intelligent decisions in the field of defense.

It is argued that the people are incapable of making such decisions in the atomic age. At least one expert on nuclear weapons takes the opposite view. Robert F. Bacher recently told a Town Hall audience in Los Angeles that the real way to make sure of sound policies is "to have those policies, and the information on which they are based, open to public scrutiny."

The author of this statement, now head of the Norman Bridge Laboratory of Physics at California Institute of Technology and consultant to the American delegation on the UN Atomic Energy Commission, served for two years on the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission. Few individuals anywhere know more than he does about atomic weapons. Yet he is afraid there is too much secrecy about such matters, not too little.

Mr. Bacher used the decision to attempt the construction of the hydrogen bomb to drive home his thesis. The President's announcement, he said, caused a tremendous stir but in terms of military effectiveness "there seems to be little reason to attach such great significance to the hydrogen bomb." It has been "grossly overrated" in the layman's mind though actually it "won't save us and isn't even a very good addition to our military potential."

That appraisal of the hydrogen bomb's potentialities, if it can be built, may sound surprising. But Mr. Bacher backed it up—and if it does sound surprising, his case is all the stronger. It is conceivable that the nation would be wiser not to waste effort and money on this venture—but secrecy makes it impossible to arrive at a valid decision on that point by discussion.

In the interest of safety, Congress might well demand, and make public, more facts from the nation's military men.

STUDENT MOBS

Reporters on the scene were guilty of no exaggeration when they said the demonstrations by high school students which surged about City Hall in New York City for several days were without parallel in the city's history. It is doubtful, in fact, that its like was ever seen anywhere. It is the sort of mob violence which the authorities should not try to handle with kid gloves.

These rock-throwing youngsters are no credit to themselves, their parents, or to the teachers whose cause they are seeking to help. If they were taught anything at all in school about the duties of citizenship they should have known that this was no way to get what they wanted.

If they had any mature understanding whatever—and they are old enough for that—they should have realized that no city can tolerate open rebellion on the part of any group of its people. Regardless of whether these demonstrations were communist-inspired, as has been charged, it is significant that they occurred in the city that is the hotbed for communism in the United States.

It may be that the teachers deserve the substantial increase in salaries for which they are campaigning. That is a matter for New York to settle through orderly processes. It is a fact, though, that school teachers in the metropolis are the highest paid in the world.

It will be a sorry day for New York and an evil omen for the future if in this instance it allows itself to be bludgeoned into submission. There obviously is something wrong with schools that inspire such action on the part of their pupils. New York has for years wrestled with the problem of communist teachers in its public schools. It is apparent the problem has not been solved.

A curious thing: The dollar doesn't go as far as the prewar model did despite the fact that its acceleration is better.

Difference between a citizen and the government is that if a citizen tries to spend money he doesn't have he goes to jail.

It is feared the winter wheat belt may not harvest a normal crop this year. Thus the problem of where to store it seems to have been solved.

Revival of the ukulele and the Charleston takes us to the Golden Twenties. Now, if we could only revive those lovely, lovely 1920-1929 Treasury surpluses!

U. S. government has more employees than the total population of Arizona, Delaware, Nevada, New Hampshire and Wyoming. Including quite a few from Missouri.

Big Three Face Many Problems

The big three council of foreign ministers meets in London next week to face, discuss and decide innumerable problems troubling a divided world, and a new major objective has appeared unofficially on the agenda.

This is creation of a really dynamic diplomatic policy by the western democracies to counteract and eventually overwhelm the communist offensive that now has moved into high gear.

Primarily, the original purpose of this new conference was to iron out differences that have arisen among the western allies and restore, if possible, the complete unity of action and purpose that has suffered some dislocations in recent months.

This remains high upon the list of matters that must be considered and adjusted. But the subject of dynamism has been introduced forcefully by Premier Georges Bidault of France in proposing creation of a "high Atlantic council" which in effect would be a super-governmental committee to handle actions of the Atlantic pact signatories.

International observers see in Bidault's suggestion a logic that is characteristic of France. But such a council might not be to the especial liking of the United States.

Would Commit U. S.

For it would commit the American government to a far greater degree than ever before in bringing about the western European unity that has been described as a necessary bulwark against communism.

Bidault—reasonably from his point of view—has in mind constantly that Marshall plan aid will come to an end in 1952.

Even the most hopeful architects of European rehabilitation are not too sure that when this time comes, the war-ravaged nations of the continent will have sufficiently reconstructed to face any new military emergency.

He feels therefore that the United States, whose resources already

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

SHOULD PARENTS REQUIRE BOARD MONEY

Is it good for the moral growth of a son or daughter while employed and living with the parents to take no financial obligations for the family? Is it fair to the parents?

Time was when many parents required working children in their teens to give their pay check to their parents who, in turn, at their own discretion, handed back to these children a portion of the wages. We are glad that time has passed. But in more recent years the pendulum has swung to the opposite extreme. Not only does the working youth who lives at home usually keep and manage his own earnings but he rarely contributes to the family finances, even enough to pay for his own food, laundry and the like. Often he uses the family car without paying for the gas. Sometimes his parents (even of moderate or very limited income) also buy part of all his clothing and give him pocket money.

One mother writes that her daughter in her twenties, earning over $3,000 a year, does not help at home, doesn't want to pay any board but spends all her salary on personal pleasures; that this daughter says none of her girl friends pay anything at home for board and keep. This mother also writes that her friends, who are parents in moderate financial circumstances, say they would not think of accepting anything from their working sons or daughters for board and the like.

Free Board

Apparently most parents suppose they should give their working children living at home free board and rooming and expect nothing from them; and most of these youths are sure this should prevail. How has it come about that so many unmarried working youths living with their parents choose to be parasites on their parents and so many parents choose to be willing slaves to these youths? Perhaps the prevailing philosophy of child rearing is at the root of the matter. Has not parental responsibility been hammered into parents' heads and hearts with little or no emphasis on cultivating responsibility in the child?

A Few Suggestions

In many homes where there is this child-parent relationship of parasite-slave, respectively, not much may easily be done for correction because the matter is so deeply rooted. But to parents of children not nearly so deeply rooted to be employed, especially of children under six or eight, I venture to offer some recommendations:

1. Talk over in the family the reasonable rights and obligations of each member.

2. See that no member of the family receives an undue portion of the family income and that each learns to adapt his wants and expenditures to a reasonable budget and practice the principles of a good allowance plan. are being poured into European defense, should cease to be only an arsenal and become in point of fact an activator.

It seems entirely probable that Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, in his meetings with Secretary of State Dean Acheson and French Foreign Minister Robert Schumann, will give at least tacit approval to the Bidault move.

Anxious To Unload

There have been many indications that the British are anxious to unload—although they prefer the word transfer—some of her military obligations on or to the United States.

This applies particularly to the far east, where the communist tide is spreading and where guardians of the Union Jack are spread precariously thin. Bevin is an old enough campaigner to know that if the United States enters into an agreement helping to supervise the Atlantic pact, it automatically will become its powerhouse. And this, of course, immediately would solve a good many pressing European economic and military problems.

On the assumption that "dynamism" now must replace the somewhat passive policies of the west, Bidault can be expected to press the Atlantic high council scheme as hard and as speedily as possible.

French To Propose

French statesmen, rarely if ever wanting for ideas, may be expected to come up with a lot of corollary suggestions aimed as much as anything at disproving communist claims that the west is decadent and helpless.

The dismissal of Frederic Joliot-Curie as chairman of the French atomic commission seems to be part of the program.

As in the case of this and all other associated measures, the Soviets and their communist propagandists fell back immediately upon the charge that the western allies are doing everything in preparation for a war of aggression against the east.

By coincidence or otherwise, the western ministers will be meeting at a time when Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, is in Europe as a self-appointed peace envoy between east and west.

Whether Lie has a carefully conceived plan of action or merely is trying a shot in an extremely dark darkness is a question. He has chosen an opportune moment, however. If he goes to Moscow he can present an entirely valid explanation of why the western nations have felt compelled to move actively in defense of their standards against a growing communist infiltration.

THE GRAVEST QUESTION

Young fellow, when you calmly ask me why

Because of one misguided evil man,

Called Stalin, they may bugle you to die.

I say in truth to answer no one can.

Is it good sense to give one man such power

Or let a hundred like him war commence?

I hold not; but when comes the fatal hour

Young men must never ask them: "Is it sense?"

You'll march away on some far field to die,

Or bent and broken, blinded to return,

And every hour you live you'll wonder why

The senselessness of war men never learn.

Bible Thought

Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to his disciples.—Jn. 6:11.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

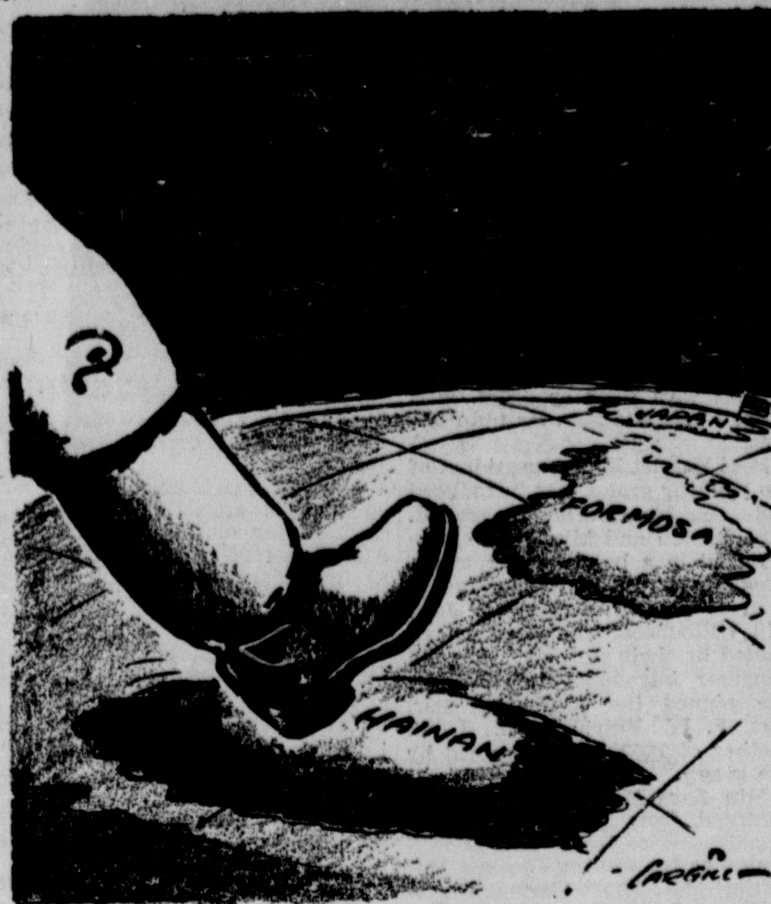

Here's a thought . . . but we can't rightly say what kind of a thought this should be classified. Seems that many people like to make money (who doesn't) but we now refer to the people in non-profit organizations . . . And one way that seems to be a sure-fire way to make this money . . . sell tickets that give the purchasers of the tickets an opportunity to receive a prize. The cost of the tickets range from twenty-five cents to a dollar . . . once in a while some brave organization will take the bit by the teeth and raise the privilege of buying a ticket to the high of five bucks.

And how do we the people react to this type of thinking . . . well for the most part . . . we go for the idea. We might be dead against the use of the dice . . . roulette . . . or cards . . . Can't stand those who play the ponies . . . but this buying of tickets with the possibility of getting a prize . . . seems to be different. Win a bond . . . costs the individual only four cents a day . . . or how about a nice new auto . . . or how's a about a diamond ring for your best gal . . . or if you prefer, fifty per cent of the cash taken in by the operators of the ticket selling.

Yes, there are many such plans . . . and we the people usually jump at the opportunity . . . But we are asked . . . is this gambling? Before you ask that think of this question. Supposing you can buy a new car . . . you don't actually need a new car . . . but you feel that you can sell that car at a profit. Is that a gambling idea? Or maybe it isn't a car . . . maybe it's a load of scrap iron . . . Is his type of dealing, gambling? Or just being sharp in business?

Maybe someone can give a definite rule that designates gambling from a business deal. What, dear readers, are your thoughts on the subject? Yes, we are opening the door . . . who will be the first to write their answer?

Nearly Calls Russia's Hand

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

I wonder if you are as surprised as I am. I don't think you could possibly be. I am rolled over, twisted, turned and head-over-heels in disturbance.

For once, this country has nearly called Russia's hand.

As a citizen of the United States, it gives joy to my heart to know that America, the strongest country, has decided to take no more face slappings from 8,000,000-plus square miles of peasants and thieves.

I have no more right to question Mr. Truman or Mr. Acheson than you have. What I want to request of these men whom we respect, and whose rules we follow, is just one thing.

Russia Gets Stronger

If this country is going to have to fight, please let it fight now. Every America waits, Russia gets stronger. Five years from now, this country might have a hard time beating Russia, but if we go out today and take hold of them, tell them to shut their mouth, we'll be doing one thing—saving the lives of high school boys. If we are going to fight, let the men who have fought fight again. Every single minute we wait, we are committing boys who never fought.

Mr. President, let me tell you this. It isn't quite fair to give American youth to Russia. The kids who will have to fight that country are now just enjoying the sweetness of this country. Let's lay no more memorial wreaths on the unknown soldier.

It is just plain wears me out to read day after day, the way we are trying to preserve our way of living. It must be a rather ridiculous way to preserve the way of living by asking those who are living to die.

What this country needs, and I say this as a man who doesn't have

Trustbusting-1950

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—You have to feel sorry for the fellow who throws a big party to which hardly anybody comes—but that's what happened the other day to Rep. Emanuel Celler, the New York New Dealer, who heads a House subcommittee to investigate monopoly. Celler or somebody on his staff put out a mimeograph come-hither sheet which advertised quite a hoe-down in Room 346, House Office Building. He had an entertainer named James Stewart Martin, who was guaranteed to lay bare an international scandal, the steel-makers' cartel. At the bottom of the sheet was this postscript: "NOTE. The heaviest press coverage of the hearings is anticipated. Press table seats may be at premium."

Don't Turn Cent That Way

But things didn't turn out that way. Your reporter arrived an hour late, as is fashionable in Washington, to find plenty of choice seats in the press section as well as in the audience and at the committee table. Mr. Martin, the star performer, had a 30-page script which contained some startling charges. If true, the Martin disclosures would prove that three big magnates of the steel industry—Fairless, Girdler and Grace—had conspired with foreigners in flagrant violation of the anti-trust laws.

But Mr. Martin, a former employee of the Justice Department, soon ran into the sort of trouble that plagues many witnesses these days. Questions by the committee revealed that he'd tried to insert some of his views into the Henry Wallace platform of 1948 and that he was currently employed by the Foundation for World Government. No guilt attaches to Mr. Martin for either association, but it just happens that both Wallace and the Foundation are names for comedy and woolly thinking around town. The result was that Mr. Martin and his testimony lost face, and a pall of apathy descended upon the hearings.

Indifference Has Prevailed

Sad to relate from Rep. Celler's viewpoint, this note of indifference has prevailed throughout the probe which began nearly a year ago.

Back in the dog-days of last summer, Celler produced a corps of economists and other soothsayers who declared that industrial monopoly—not the Fair Deal—was leading us into socialism. When the hearings resumed in October, a group of big and little businessmen were quizzed. To the chairman's discomfort, more than a few of the small business men said they could handle monopoly all right. What they needed was protection against big government and strangling taxation. Added to Rep. Celler's embarrassment was the number of witnesses who insisted that no study of monopoly was complete without an examination of the labor unions. And only a week or so ago, the chairman suffered another disappointment. He called in Oscar Chapman, Secretary of Interior, and tried to make him testify that the steel industry was a monster which ought to be chained to the government's doghouse. But Chapman declined to have words put into his mouth, and another sensation fizzled.

Several Bills Are Drawn

None of this is to say that monopoly shouldn't be studied or that the Celler hearings have been a total loss. True, no new laws have resulted from them as yet, but several bills have been drawn. One bill (probably a good one, but certainly not new) would raise the penalty on anti-trust violations from $5,000 to $50,000. Another (also a good one, but without a chance of passage) would bring labor unions under the anti-trust laws. Still a third (which seems praiseworthy) would rule that criminal conviction in anti-trust cases is evidence of guilt when the same cases come up in a civil suit.

But the salient fact to emerge is that the Celler hearings have made little impact on the public or on the 81st Congress. Nobody, to coin a phrase, gives a hoot. Taxes, strikes and the national debt when the economic dragon of the day. Trustbusting may be a fine and dandy pastime in its proper season, but the economic climate just isn't right for it now.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

"Mens Sana In Corpore Sano"

For the information of non-Latin scholars—or Latin non-scholars—we have the same proverb in our own language, "A Sound Mind In A Sound Body."

But it seems much more erudite and polite when you quote Latin—o you may want to quote it some day when some relative or friend makes a fool of himself by abusing his body.

You can talk all you want of mind and soul and the spiritual side of life and man.

By the way, it is a shame that we don't have a word in our language which signifies both man and woman. It is so clumsy always to have to say "he or she" or "man and woman." I wish someone would coin such a word and have it put officially into use. It might be done by just calling that composite "woman." Simply add an "m" to "woman" and you have half of woman and all of man.

The only trouble with that is that the women of America might form an organization and hold protest meetings. They might feel slighted because this new word contains only HALF of woman and ALL of man.

But that's neither here nor there. What we are talking about is "Mens Sana In Corpore Sano."

As I was saying, there certainly is a SPIRITUAL side to man. There is something mysterious in man's makeup which transcends all the knowledge of physicians, scientists and preachers.

However, there is also something mysterious about electricity.

Yet we know that the motors must be functioning, that the wires must be intact, that everything that generates, conducts and uses the electricity must be in proper order.

It is the same with the human mind and the human body.

In that brain of ours—and perhaps in our heart—there is something sublime, something mysterious, something that places the human being high above the animal.

But whatever it is, it is conducted from somewhere to somewhere by the nerves, the veins, the muscles.

The body-structure is an intricate, PHYSICAL machine that must function with hair-trigger accuracy to make the whole work to perfection.

(Copyright, 1950, by Bennett Cerf. Distributed by King Features Syndicate)

A lot of people are born handicapped or become that way without any fault of their own.

Their minds are clear, they can do and have done wonderful things.

But they have not deliberately or by criminal neglect degenerated their bodies to a point where it can no longer fulfill its function.

Always remember that the body is the precious and fragile container of your mind.

Treat it gently, lest one break and the other spill.

Bride Is Found Stabbed To Death

CHICAGO, May 2.—(INS)—A bride of 10 days, clad in part of her trousseau, was found stabbed to death early today in her honeymoon apartment in Chicago.

Police said the handle of an eight-inch butcher knife protruded from the chest of Mrs. Blanche Castaneda, 24.

Her husband, Raymond, 31, was held for an inquest scheduled for later today.

He told police he found his bride lying face down on the floor beside a bed when he returned from work at the main postoffice. Castaneda said he picked up his wife, believed she had fainted.

Investigators said the postal worker told them his wife remarked Sunday night: "I'm going to commit suicide and you'll be blamed for it."

Turbulence In Russia Likely

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(INS)—Foreign Aid Chief Paul Hoffman predicted today that "a period of turbulence will come to Russia" when Stalin dies or quits and the satellite nations will break away from the Kremlin.

Hoffman made the forecast in a panel discussion on "winning the peace" before the annual meeting of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Rep. Vorys (R) Ohio, a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee who participated in the discussion, said that a change in American policy can still salvage China from Communist control despite what he called "the defeatist attitude of the State Department."

Both Vorys and Hoffman held out hope of a revolution in Russia swinging the tide of the cold war in favor of the west.

Brooklyn Detectives Are Being Probed

NEW YORK, May 2.—(INS)—

The loan transactions of a dozen Brooklyn detectives were being studied today for evidence of possible collusion with gamblers.

District Attorney Miles F. McDonald made the disclosure as the special Brooklyn grand jury questioned acting Lt. James F. Reilly and Gustave Wagner. The latter is a pool room owner from whom the lieutenant allegedly borrowed $6,000.

The alleged loan was uncovered by McDonald's men after a raid on a Brooklyn policy "drop".

McDonald said:

"We are also investigating the loan transactions—and you can quote the loan—of other police officers but they do not involve either Reilly or Wagner."

The new study involves two groups of officers who have already appeared before the grand jury and whose bank records together with those of their families have been subpoenaed.

Civic Meeting At Castlewood

Improvements In Area Are Discussed

Residents of Castlewood and vicinity were offered assurance in a report given by Ray Williams that the telephone situation will see some forthcoming improvements.

The occasion was the regular monthly meeting of the Castlewood Civic Association held Monday evening at the East New Castle Grange. The meeting was opened with the invocation being asked by the Rev. Earl Collins and the singing of America. In the absence of Jos. Cowan, President Frank Deitrich, vice president was the presiding officer.

Included in the report given by Mr. Williams of the Communications committee was the information that twenty-five new lines were being installed with ten new cables coming into Castlewood. Also, an effort would be made by the directors of the Princeton Telephone Co. to obtain four extra trunk lines to New Castle. It was agreed upon that sometime before the fall season that not more than eight numbers would be listed on one line.

Seek Road Improvement

John Kennedy, road supervisor representative, offered the information in his report that 270 names were on the petition for the improvement of Route 37053 known as the Cline Hill road. The intentions of the Civic body are that this road be widened, resurfaced and that the narrow bridge at the bottom of this hill constitutes a traffic hazard that should be remedied at the earliest possible time, as there is considerable travel on this route.

With the motion being offered by Frank Long and seconded by Mr. Kellar it was agreed upon that the proper procedure in the disposition of this matter be that it be referred to Mr. Martin, superintendent of the Pennsylvania department of highways for further action.

T. C. McClane of the water committee stated that talks have been going on with the authorities of the water company relative to the estimated cost of bringing city water to the Castlewood district.

Bus Service

Mr. Brown advised the interested audience that in a recent conversation with Mr. Wooster of the Ellwood City Motor Coach Co. that his firm will always be glad to have any recommendations on improving the bus service to its patrons in the outlying district. Then came the highlight of the gathering in the musical program.

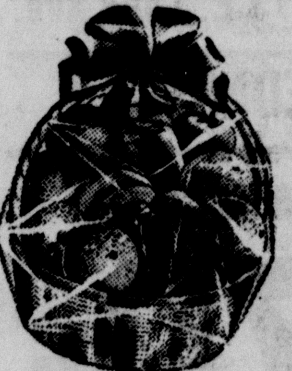

Shirley Thomas, dancer; Virginia Cerrell, accordion; George Barber, drums; and Tom Jones on the trumpet comprised "Shirley and the Musical Aces" in a program of military tap and baton dancing with musical selections. An additional feature of the evening was the appearance of the musical group known as the "Twilighters" with Jack Mentzer playing the clarinet, Joe Kosinski, the accordion, Russel Mentzer, drummer and 13-year-old vocalist, Bobbie Kwiat.

WAMPUM

TO PRESENT COMEDY
The Junior class of Wampum high school will present "Danger—Willie at Work," a three-act comedy, in the high school gymnasium Wednesday evening, May 3, at 8 o'clock.

The entire action of the play takes place in Willie's workshop in the basement of the Vaughn home.

Willie Vaughn, a boy wonder

(Nick Cook), and his many inventions nearly drive his mother (Mary Santelli), father (Chuck Krueger), sister, Carolyn (Anne Butler), and girl friend, Lola (Peggy Grinen) crazy. Two of his endeavors are to change three guinea pigs into three live girls, Maisie (Gloria Bennett), Daisy (Merlene Harper) and Hazy (Shirley Hairhogger), and to make his pal Orville (Bruce Bingham) invisible. Orville's disappearance puts the town in an uproar and brings celebrity Professor Alberta Bocksdingle (Peggy Karner), a newspaper reporter, Lydia Rockwell (Helen Johnson), and even the sheriff,

Andy Hopkins (Jack Maher), to try to bring Orville back from the "invisible world"—and we must not forget our three guinea pigs, girls! It is sure to be hilariously funny and no one will go home sad. The play is under the direction of Margaret Rishel, a member of the faculty.

The PUC denied a petition filed by Philadelphia-Pittsburgh carriers, a Philadelphia trucking firm and other through-state truckers seeking suspension of the rate cut.

SUICIDE NOTE

ATHENS.—(INS)—Sixteen-year-old Athenian schoolboy George Varvitsiotis, who recently killed himself with his father's revolver, left a note saying: "The life I am leading is unbearable. I keep on hearing maledictions, mockeries and insults. Every little bit of fun I have goes to waste. Grandma told me that if she had a pistol she would kill me. A cad and a parasite has no business to be alive. What affected me most were Dad's maledictions and Ma's mockeries. What I am to do will have been accomplished after much thought. Don't cry for me.—George."

TILE JOB

NEW YORK—(INS)—The "longest" tile job ever undertaken in the United States has been completed in New York City's new $80,000, 900 Brooklyn-Battery tunnel, now being built by the Tri-borough Bridge and Tunnel Authority. The tunnel is scheduled to open late this spring. The tile job gets "longest" title not from its duration but from its extent, for the new 9,117-foot vehicular tunnel is the longest such ever built in this country according to engineers of the Authority. More than 780,000 square feet of tile, enough for 8,500 average bathrooms, was used on the job.

Elijah To Be Given May 7

Music Club Chorus To Sing Oratorio

The Music club chorus will present "Elijah," by Felix Mendelssohn, in the First Methodist church on Sunday evening, May 7, at 8 o'clock.

This year is the fiftieth anniversary of the Music club, it being founded on January 1, 1900. This quotation of Bach "Study only the best, for life is too short to study everything" has been the motto and aim of Music club since its founding, so for its golden jubilee year, the Music club chorus is pleased to sing Mendelssohn's oratorio, "Elijah," second only to "The Messiah" by Handel, in its popularity. The story is of the rugged prophet "Elijah" who lived 900 years before our Lord. His trials and triumphs made him the greatest of God's prophets. The Lord God bestowed upon him the highest honor ever given to man at the end of his life. He was taken up into Heaven by a chariot of fire.

The chorus of 125 voices has devoted weeks of preparation for this performance. Mrs. William J. Caldwell is the director of the chorus. Under her inspired leadership and the quality and comprehension of her interpretation, the chorus promises to present a truly magnificent performance.

In Title Role

The chorus is proud to present Chester Kyle of Chicago in the title role of "Elijah." Mr. Kyle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kyle of Mt. Jackson. He is a teacher in the schools of Chicago. He was soloist for the chorus in 1944-1945. The other soloists are all active members of the Music club chorus which is pleased to have such outstanding local talent. The assisting soloists are Miss Ruth Weir, Mrs. Clark E. McClelland, Mrs. Kenneth Gibson, Miss Myrna Kelly and Miss Betty Smith, sopranos; Mrs. Arthur Durlesser and Miss Charlotte Taylor, contraltos; Fred Smith and Jack McKee, tenors; Bert Schroeder and George Wyman, basses.

The accompanists are Edwin Lewis, organist and director of music at the First Methodist church, at the organ, and Mrs. Richard Allen, organist and director of music at the First Christian church, at the piano. They are unsurpassable in their contribution to the support of the chorus. The talented artistry of all these musicians indicates a brilliant and beautiful performance on Sunday evening.

TOMATO LATE BLIGHT FOUND IN GREENHOUSE

Tomato late blight destructive plant disease, has been found on plants in a greenhouse in western Pennsylvania. If it gets into the garden or field, severe losses can result. Plant growers are urged to be on the lookout for this disease. It is a very dangerous practice to take plants from a bed that shows any symptoms of blight.

Fixed copper sprays applied at weekly intervals will protect the plants from this disease. Use 2 pounds of actual copper in 100 gallons of spray or 2½ level tablespoons to each gallon. Copper materials should not be applied within five days of transplanting.

TURNING COWS ON TOO SOON INJURES PASTURE

Cows, like their owners, are subject to spring fever. As the young grass starts, cows become restless and are anxious to get out on pasture. Evidence of "fever" on the part of dairymen is that they turn them out too soon. If pastured too soon the grass will be injured for the rest of the season. When grass first starts it may contain from 85 to 90 per cent water. If cows are to be maintained both in condition of flesh and in milk production, continue winter feeding schedule for a few days when they are first turned on pasture.

As the grass becomes more mature changes in the feeding schedule can be made. Then grass makes up the larger part of the feed. But continue feeding dry hay throughout the pasture season. This practice has given many dairymen excellent results. The dry hay helps to slow up the grass passing through the digestive tract and enables cows to make much better use of the nutrients in the grass.

Feed the dry hay either in the barn or from a rack in the pasture where cows can help themselves. The protein content of the grain mixture may be lowered to 12 to 16 per cent depending upon the quality and amount of pasture, and less grain is needed if plenty of good pasture is available. The best guide to feeding at this time is condition of flesh, milk production per cow, and amount and quality of pasture.

Trees Being Removed Near McGill School To Place Drains

Trees on the south side of Arthur McGill school are being removed in order to place a drain from Albert street to Carlisle street, it is announced by school officials.

Residents of Sumner avenue, south of the school, have complained of flooded cellars for a good many years from the drainage of the First U. P. church, the school and perhaps other properties on the hill.

The drain will run along the course of a street that was never completed south of the school.

Most of the 2,000 covered bridges still used in the United States are east of the Mississippi.

More Deception

A statement signed by Ralph B. Hayes and A. H. Lewis makes a personal attack on me, and makes the false statements: 1. That I attacked two wounded veterans, and 2: That I am macing and coercing state employees.

As far as the personal attack on me is concerned, I will ignore it except to stand on my reputation and record.

As to having attacked wounded veterans, I say I have never attacked the war record of any veteran, but I do attack and have attacked the political records of Jay Cooke and Roger Rowland.

This attack consists of my charge, undeniend to date, that Roger Rowland is the active power behind Jaye Cooke's candidacy in Lawrence county.

The statement signed by Hayes and Lewis is the first open and public admission that the Rowland Machine is in charge of Cooke's campaign in this county.

The charge that I have maced or coerced any state employee is ridiculous. I challenge Hayes or Lewis to produce one state employee whom I have maced or attempted to coerce.

Mr. Mansell, who is signing the ads. for the Cooke campaign, and who is a friend of mine, is employed by the state under Governor Duff, as attorney for the Department of Public Assistance. Ask him if I have maced him for any money or coerced him in any way as to his position. I will accept HIS answer.

Judge Fine served overseas in the Engineers. Hayes and Lewis call the Engineers a non-combatant unit. The Engineers render notable service and incur as much risk as any other unit.

I am perfectly willing to compare Judge Fine's war record with either Hayes' or Lewis'.

I would like to know and so would many veterans, what Veterans Committee you represent.

You also question my war record. For your information and the Rowland Machine you represent, let me state:

On October 3, 1918, under Serial No. 3035 I was classified 1A.

On October 4, 1918, I was ordered to appear for physical examination.

On October 10, 1918, I was examined at the City Building.

On October 11, 1918, I was notified that I had passed the physical and was placed in 1A, subject to call when the Government had need of my services.

The Armistice was signed three days before I was to leave for Camp Sherman. I made no claims for exemption, so the only difference between your record and mine was that your numbers came up first.

You call me a "Fighting Sheriff". I will have to now live up to that little cognomen.

I am not afraid of the Rowland Machine and am still in there "fighting" for Judge Fine for Governor in preference to the Independent (?) candidate, Jaye Cooke, who is backed by the Rowland Machine.

Thanks for the opening, boys.

Frank L. Coen

Chairman Duff-Fine Lawrence County Committee.

Flannery, president of New Castle's Woman's club; Mrs. Lloyd Randolph, newly elected president of the Lawrence County Federation of Women's clubs; Mrs. Wilber F. Miller, retiring president of the Lawrence County Federation of Women's clubs; Mrs. J. D. Sartwell, president of the Ellwood Woman's club of Ellwood City; Mrs. Helen Powell, president of the Junior Woman's club at Ellwood City.

Sessions will be held in the Bellevue Stratford hotel, with the president's reception on the first evening and the banquet the following evening.

Sokolsky, world news commentator and columnist; Mrs. Charles L. Fuller, Brocton, Mass., treasurer of the General Federation of Women's clubs; and Dr. Rex E. Clements, Bryn Mawr. State Compensation Referee Is Ousted HARRISBURG, May 2.—(INS)—Laurence Van Gibb, of Sewickley, today, was fired from his $7,500 yearly post as a workmen's compensation referee by Gov. James H. Duff.

The governor's office refused to comment on the dismissal. Van Gibb was appointed to the job in 1939 and reappointed last January.

He reportedly was a close associate of ex-insurance commissioner James J. Malone, Jr., who was ousted from his $10,000-a-year position by Duff several weeks ago.

Malone is an active campaigner in behalf of Jay Cooke who opposes John S. Fine for governor. Duff and Fine are running mates for the Republican nomination for the state's two top elective offices.

Cooke's supporters charge that Malone's pink slip was political reprisal.

Rumors in Harrisburg add that Van Gibb's failure to appear at a Duff-Fine political rally in Pittsburgh last week may have sparked the governor's decision.

Ecclesian Cub Scouts Program

Cub scouts of Ecclesian Pack 50 chose the month of April to relive the days of the country fair.

Last Saturday evening the Ecclesian club was the stage for such an affair. Exhibits of the cubs' favorite hobbies and crafts as well as some interesting collections were displayed on the first floor.

One feature was the rides of a miniature carnival in motion to the strains of a record player. The big tent covered the sidshows which included such features as the strong man, bearded lady, two-headed man, snake charmer, fat lady, Hawaiian dancers, clown, band and a magician.

On the second floor of the Ecclesian club there were various games of skill, fortune teller, fish pond, peep shows and refreshment booths.

Michael Flaherty was the winner of the bean guessing contest.

Grandpa and grandma and small brothers and sisters and other friends of the cubs voted the evening a success. The theme for the month of May is air fun. The boys are busy planning model airports, gliders, paper parachutes and kites.

Lawyers' Arguments

With both judges sitting Monday, argument court was held in court room number one.

One case on the list was that of Demetrius Proiois versus Mary G. Thomas. The case arose out of padlock proceedings over a year ago when the cafe operated by Mr. Proiois was closed by order of court and padlocked.

Later the license for the place was revoked by the State Liquor Control Board and for a time the place was kept locked. Some time ago Mary G. Thomas, owner of the premises levied upon some of the equipment for rent alleged to be due.

This Proiois claims was illegal and he brought suit to recover. The argument was for judgment notwithstanding the verdict.

THE FAMILY
SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Homesickness

Marianne has looked forward to the visit with Grandma. It's the first time she's been away from home overnight by herself. But as she's getting ready to go to bed in a strange room, she begins to feel very badly. No treatment except a dose of mother and home seems to be of any help.

Joey is nine and for the last three summers has wanted to go to camp in the worst way. Finally, the folks agree and, with great excitement, he leaves with the rest of the crowd. For the first days, everything is fine. Then the edges of the new experience wears off.

Joey's counselor has a full-fledged case of homesickness on his hands. It's perfectly normal for children away from home for the first time to find the adjustment a difficult one. Their whole lives have been built around Mom, Pop and the rest of the family. Often it's better to ease into the experience of being away from home gradually than was true in the cases of Marianne and Joey. A day's stay with Grandma or a short trip to the country with the neighbors are ways in which youngsters can get used to being away from home without getting homesick.

Good Taste

By FRANCES MARTEL

"I have noticed so many young men let their woman companions alight first from street cars. Give us, please, the rule of precedence where a man and woman are traveling together."

Answer: A man should allow his woman companion to precede him into any vehicle so that he may give her assistance. He should always allow her to do so whenever it is courteous and expedient, going up and down the stairs unless it is dark or dangerous on the stairway, in which case he should go first to lead the way. He should always give a woman the right of way whenever it is possible and follow her instead of walking in front of her. If in leaving a crowded elevator he is nearer the door, he should step out first and of course wait for her, rather than start down the corridor, leaving her to follow him. In leaving a vehicle, he should alight first, always so that he may assist her. He precedes her only when by so doing it is to her comfort and advantage. Another instance is upon entering a restaurant having no hostess or waiter to escort them to a table, or a theater having no usher to show them a seat.

Question: Are wedding gifts usually sent to a divorcee who remarries?

Answer: Very close friends send presents to the widow or divorcee who remarries, but general acquaintances usually do not, unless they especially wish. There is no obligation to do this at the second marriage as there is at the first.

Question: What are proper refreshments to serve after a 3 o'clock wedding?

Answer: Tea, coffee or other beverage, tea sandwiches, wedding cake and ice cream.

Present your problems to Miss Martel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

DROUGHT

Continued dry weather is not very good for a farm. The lack of moisture does not help the crops. Water is necessary for growing plants.

Water is necessary for the farmer too. His body is about 70% water. He needs a lot of water every day.

Perhaps it would be a good idea for the farmer to drink at least a quart of water every day whether he is thirsty or not.

When he works hard and gets to sweating he drinks lots of water. He needs it all the year round.

Buster likes pop and gingerale and other effervescent drinks. They are good ways to get water. Milk is too.

PATCHELL-WILLIAMS WEDDING IN LONDON

Mrs. William Patchell of 407 Elizabeth street, who is visiting in England and Wales, sends word of the marriage of her daughter, Mary Jane Patchell to Gordon Brian Williams of Ammonford, Wales.

The wedding took place on April 8, at St. Margaret's church, Edgware, England, by the pastor. The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Evan Davies.

The bride wore an ivory satin gown with Cathedral train, worked in crystals and pearls, with a large orange blossom headdress and silk illusion veil, and carried a bouquet of Easter lilies.

Bridesmaids were her cousins, who wore yellow taffeta gowns, carrying bouquets of tea roses. The groom's best man was Rev. David Jones.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in St. Margaret's church hall, where the bride sang, "The Trust" by Sibelius, and "What's Sweeter Than A New Broom Rose."

The couple left for a honeymoon at the Isle of Wight and the south of England, and will take up residence at 123 Fairfield Crescent, Edgware, London.

The groom is a graduate of Lampeter Theological Seminary, and Bristol University. The bride is a graduate of The Guild Hall College of Music, London, and now holds the diploma of L. G. S. M. in voice culture.

St. Margaret's little church was built in 13th century, and the great Handel, composer, attended it while living in Edgware.

Games were the pastime of the evening, following the business meeting, and a delicious lunch was then served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Roy Young. Miniature plastic pink wagons were used as favors and the centerpiece was a large cake with the inscription in pink "Trail Blazers Guild."

Lawrence Co. Homemakers Sharing In National Week

Lawrence county homemakers will share the observance of National Home Demonstration Week, April 30 to May 6, with more than three million homemakers in the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico. These women who have benefited from Home Economics Extension work will review the work that has been done and acquaint others with the services available through participation in meetings, demonstrations, and exhibits.

Educational Program

The Agriculture and Home Economics Extension service is a long range educational program to help farm people to help themselves. It encourages farm families to adapt sound policies and correct practices in subjects related to agriculture and home economics. By improving the individual farm and home programs, rural people help develop and maintain an economically sound and socially satisfying home and community life.

Extension serves through home visits, meetings, visual aids, publications, and by making use of press and radio facilities. During the past year Lawrence county rural homemakers learned and put into practice the latest methods of: preparation and preservation of food, planning and serving of attractive meals; simplified construction, care, and selection of clothing; home management, furniture repair, home remodeling and decorating; and, work in child care and promotion of better understanding of the family by all its members. The work has federal, state and county financial support. To a large extent, its success reflects substantial assistance by capable local leaders, and also the support of farm and other organizations, including banks, and civic and service clubs, and individuals.

Extensive Research

Behind the information that rural families receive from the Extension Service is extensive research. It is the research of the United States Department of Agriculture and the Pennsylvania State college.

Agriculture and Home Economics Extension was formally started in Pennsylvania in 1907 by the Pennsylvania State college and has functioned through the college ever since. At the request of rural people, and in co-operation with local committees, the Pennsylvania State college organized extension work on a county basis.

In 1914, Congress put Extension on a national basis, making it a co-operative program between the United States Department of Agriculture and the land grant colleges in the different states.

Extension service in Lawrence county was officially started on July 15, 1916. Miss Amelia Doddridge, first home economics resident worker, arrived in September 1924 and divided her time between Lawrence, Butler, and Beaver counties.

Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary To Be Observed Friday
BELLS LANDING, Pa., May 2. (INS)—Mr. and Mrs. David Hoyt Watts will celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary with an open house at their home near Bells Landing Friday.

Watts, a former lecturer and advisor with the state department of agriculture, once carried on a 15-year crusade, which ended successfully, for the establishment of centralized township schools in Pennsylvania.

The couple is well-known throughout Clearfield county. PORTLAND, Ore.—Rickey Tyrell didn't have a headache but he was certainly sick after he ate between 50 and 60 aspirin tablets. A stomach pump fixed the one-year-old's innards.

Public Housing Is Mostly Costly To Taxpayers

The predicted deficit of $14 billion in Federal spending this year and next is ample evidence that the country cannot afford to indulge in costly subsidized public housing and other hand-out programs, according to M. Dale Andrews, who is a member of the National Affairs Committee of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association. "The time has come when bureau heads and others in Washington must put the national welfare ahead of political consideration," Mr. Andrews said.

"No well-thinking person objects to bone-fide welfare programs designed to aid families which are in real need and can not maintain decent standards of living by their own efforts. But every individual who wants to see this country survive as a free nation, without regimentation and political domination, must object to huge spending programs designed to subsidize self-supporting families merely as a means of winning their votes at election time."

Often Political Tool
"Public housing has not in the past and will not in the future serve the purpose for which it theoretically is intended—helping low-income families obtain decent shelter which they cannot afford out of their own income. It too often becomes a political tool, used to reward those who vote 'right' at election time."

"The $13 billion public housing program approved last year will provide subsidized housing for only 810,000 families, at an average cost of $16,000 per family. And that cost comes directly from the pockets of taxpayers, many of whom are more deserving of aid than the families which occupy the units through political favoritism."

Letter Carriers To Meet At Ellwood City On Saturday

Ellwood City will be host to the Northwest Pennsylvania District of the Pennsylvania Section of the National Association of Letter Carriers at their district meeting Saturday in Sons of Italy hall.

New Castle local will be represented by around 50 members, President Jack Weatherby stated today.

The meeting will convene at 4:30 o'clock, followed by a dinner at 6 o'clock. The speakers will include John W. Schmidt, of Milwaukee, members of the National Board of Trustees, Congressman Carroll D. Kearns of the 28th district, and Congressman Leo H. Gavin, of the 19th district. Malcolm Dennison, state vice president, and Ruth Aldrice, president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the state organization, will also be in attendance.

R. J. Schill, executive secretary of the Ellwood City Chamber of Commerce, will be the toastmaster of the evening.

Floyd Thompson, of Ellwood City, is chairman of the committee on Arrangements.

Following the dinner and program, a dance and floor show will be held.

Four Westminster Students To Compete At State College

More than 75 colleges and universities are expected to attend the festival. Making the trip from Westminster will be William MacAnallen, New Castle; Barbara Cloud Uniontown; Phyllis Hartman, Pittsburgh; and William Anderson, New Castle. The group will be accompanied by Miss Helen V. Cushman, assistant professor of speech at the college.

McAnallen, a freshman speech major, will read a prose narrative "Receipt for Pork" by Robert H. Blackburn. Miss Cloud, a junior speech major, will read dramatic excerpts from "Double Door" by Elizabeth McFadden and "I Remember Mama" by John Van Druten.

Miss Hartman, freshman education major, will present a group of children's poems. Anderson, junior English major, will read "Tintern Abbey" by Wordsworth.

Radio Announcer Is Speaker At Rotary Meeting

Harry Reith, WKST sports announcer, was the guest speaker at the meeting of New Castle Rotary club in The Castleton Monday noon.

Mr. Reith told about the inside workings of radio broadcasting, why wave lengths are confined to certain areas and of the fact that broadcasts are beamed in different directions at different times of the day.

He stated that reception is better at night than in the daytime, because a layer of air, which surrounds the earth comes closer to the earth at night, and reflects back the waves better.

Mr. Reith concluded his talk with some of his own personal experiences, many of them of a humorous character.

FIRE BOXES "THINK"

NEWTON, Mass.—The modern fire alarm box is a robot with a mechanical mind of its own. It has the power to "think" and act instantly in an emergency. According to Frank R. Bridges, chief engineer of the Gamewell Co., which produces such systems, the box is virtually foolproof and can send its message despite a broken wire or short circuit. When its electro-mechanical brain gets a signal that the circuit is broken, it uses the ground to transmit the fire alarm.

PITTSBURGH, May 2.—(INS)—The first edition of the Pittsburgh Press was not published today because many union employees refused to cross the picket line of the Commercial Telegraphers Union (AFL), striking against the United Press.

The wire service offices in Pittsburgh are housed in the Press building.

More than an hour after the scheduled publication of the first edition of the Press, a spokesman said "I don't know whether we'll get out a paper today or not."

Newspaper executives were meeting with officials of their unions late this morning.

CTU members, who are participating in a nation-wide strike against the UP in a wage dispute, set up a picket line this morning at the start of the second day of the walkout.

UP officials said the organization's operations in Pittsburgh are proceeding.

Brown also was charged with publicizing a lottery and both he and Joseph Gunderman of St. Mary's FOE deputy grand worthy president and deputy state auditor, were indicted on blackmail counts.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By FR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

TODDLER'S ADVENTURE

When the young sprout first begins to walk or even when he is crawling actively, we are likely to maintain a pretty close watch on him. Some parents use a harness and keep him at a rope's end. Even if this method isn't used, he is rarely allowed to move about at random.

Indeed, one must be careful. There are many difficulties into which he might toddle. But it can be a lot of fun for both youngster and grownup if, now and again, he is given more leeway.

Have you ever watched a parent standing by and letting Junior pull himself up steep steps or walk with one foot on the sidewalk and the other in the gutter? Or have you let your offspring wander around anywhere his fancy takes him when you were out in the fields, on the beach or in the woods?

Naturally, the grownup must keep a gimlet eye on what is happening. But if they can refrain from interfering, except when absolutely necessary, the explorations of the young-un will be a delight to him. At the same time, he will show Mom and Pop what an adventurer and scientist he can be.

While climbing, balancing himself on all sorts of things, looking under rocks, picking up sticks, watching whatever is going on, he's being himself in a big way. And it's good for him not to be hauled up short every minute or so with a "Don't do that." "No, no," or a restraining hand.

Congregationalists Plan For Special Prayer Service

At the First Congregational church on Wednesday evening, at 7:30, there will be a special prayer service for the success of the Gymnasia Ganu (Welsh Singing Assembly) on Sunday, May 7, at the church.

The objective of the Gymnasia Ganu as a religious institution will be discussed by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Jones, at the prayer service. The Gymnasia has never been, and was never intended to be a profit making concern, but an occasion for true praise, and for the expression of spiritual adoration. It has an early origin among those who became free in their form of worship, and has proved an incentive of progress among the Free Churches of Wales.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, May 2.—Steve Cochran, the new "villain of the year," has more screen crimes to his credit since January than any other movie meanie.

He read the Elsie Dinsmore books as a kid and thinks they started him on his career.

The ruthless killer of "The Damned Don't Cry" and "The Two Million Dollar Bank Robbery" is, it seems, really a sheep in wolf's clothing.

He grows primroses in his garden, plays checkers and likes rainy weather.

Steve has, he claims, three special "telephone voices" for different people and purposes and sometimes he used them all without avail.

Cochran, who usually reports to work on time in his Warner pictures, owns and operates five alarm clocks.

A successful murderer in pictures, he has bought only two guns during his whole life and used them only for peaceful purposes. He has little or no interest in famous murder cases and doesn't bother to read them or to buy the papers that report them.

May Be Biggest Star

The guy Warner Brothers say will soon be their biggest star likes limburger cheese, the smell of fresh paint, has owned his own horse and usually has fun at his own parties. He doesn't care for television and isn't afraid of thunderstorms. He goes to church.

Cochran has a good memory for telephone numbers, likes to visit old book stores, has caught a fish, large or small depending upon to whom he is telling the story. Says he signs letters less affectionately than he means and talks to himself whether he is alone or not.

He always cries at sad scenes in pictures, he reports, and has never thrown anything into the Grand Canyon. He can milk a cow. He is sure Homer was a person and pays little attention to weather reports because he thinks they are usually wrong anyway. Keeps shoes in his shoes "about half the time." The other half, he suggests, he keeps his feet in them. He is not fragile, doesn't take cold easily, even if his feet get wet.

Always goes out for dinner on "the cook's night off" "Have to," he explains. "I'm the cook."

The women who came to America on the Mayflower first went ashore on November 24, 1620.

Pennsylvania Prepares For Great Tourist Year

By ED HAUCK

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, May 2.—Pennsylvania's multi-million dollar resort business today is whipping itself into shape for its biggest year.

Reports from resort hotels and inns show more than $3,000,000 have gone into more and new facilities and accommodations for the thousands of vacationists expected to hit the road for the Pennsylvania hills this season, according to the State Commerce Department.

Along with the expansion programs, resort operators hope to line up top notch entertainment.

Huge Industry

Last year Pennsylvania resortists turned the two-week-with-pay business into a whopping $600,000,000 industry, the Department said. This year the figure is expected to soar higher.

Ninety-two percent of the resortmen predict a better season than last year while five percent said it would match 1949. The remainder have no opinion.

Pocono mountain vacation spots improved their hostels more than others, according to the State Vacation and Recreation Bureau.

"Something new has been added to practically every resort," one bureau spokesman said.

Honeymooners will be greeted with plush red carpet welcomes this year.

"More hotels in the Poconos are catering to these young people and the same is true in lesser resort areas of the state," the bureau reported.

Another Innovation

Another innovation mushrooming in Pennsylvania for leisure lovers is the family-type hotel. These places arrange to accommodate the larger family. Full time baby sitters and recreation facilities for older children are provided so parents can be free to pursue their own recreation for the day.

More than 300 supervised camps for boys and girls also plan for a good season. Latest reports indicate more than 50,000 boys and girls will be quartered in these camps during June, July and August.

For the vacationers who desire a little of the "Old West" Pennsylvania will provide the touch without the necessity of a 2,500 mile trip. A half-dozen dude ranches will flourish in the state.

Motor courts and motels expect a recreation boom business and the state forest parks have 200 cabins for persons who enjoy the solitude of the deep woods.

More than 150 events are listed for Pennsylvanians and their guests. Heading the agenda is the second International Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America at Valley Forge, June 30-July 6.

The others range through art shows, antique shows, handicraft fairs, county fairs, blossom festivals, community centennials to the 140-mile canoe race on French creek and the Allegheny river, as part of Pittsburgh's "Welcome Weeks" celebration.

Anderson Named All-Star Coach

CHICAGO, May 2.—(INS)—Holy Cross' Dr. Edward N. Anderson will be head coach of the college football all-stars when they meet the Philadelphia Eagles in Chicago's Soldier Field Aug. 11.

The sponsors of the annual college-professional gridiron tilt announced the choice of Anderson yesterday. He will be assisted by three top coaches from other parts of the country.

It will be the one-time University of Iowa coach's second all-star assignment. He was in charge of the 1940 team that lost to Green Bay, 45 to 28.

Sponsors of the game said that the squad personnel will be limited this year to 50 instead of 70 players, as heretofore. All players will be picked by the coaching staff.

Ninety-nine of the 134 horses which were named for the 76th running of the Kentucky Derby here Saturday, May 6, also were nominated for the $10,000 added Derby Trial to be run on the preceding Tuesday. Only Derby eligibles can be nominated for the Trial which is run at one mile.

Giosa Winner Over Greco

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—(INS)—Plucky Eddie Giosa, who recently deserted the lightweight ranks, stood out today as a permanent fixture in the welterweight bracket by virtue of a workmanlike verdict over Canada's Johnny Greco.

Rugged Eddie, an astute man with a fist and footwork, peppered and punched his heavier opponent enough to merit a split decision over the 10 round distance last night.

Giosa weighed 142, while the Canadian welter king tipped the beam at 148½. Although a heavier swifter, Greco never managed to solve elusive Eddie's style.

Graziano-Cidone Match Arranged

MILWAUKEE, May 2.—(INS)—Promoters say former middleweight champion Rocky Graziano will meet Vinnie Cidone in Milwaukee Arena May 9 before a sell-out crowd for a net gate of $40,500, the largest in Wisconsin's boxing history.

Matchmaker Frank Balistreri announced that the last batch of 2,000 tickets for the 10-round go was sold in less than five hours yesterday and said he could have sold at least 5,000 more.

The crowd—an anticipated 12,200—will set a new indoor mark in the state. Tickets were priced at from $2 to $5 plus tax.

Boston Goalie Is Trophy Winner

BOSTON, May 2.—(INS)—Jack Gelineau, 25-year-old goalie of the Boston Bruins, today was the third goalie in the history of the National Hockey league to win the Calder trophy.

Gelineau polled 39 points—15 more than his nearest rivals—in being selected as the outstanding rookie of the year.

Gelineau, who receives $1,000 from the league for being the best rookie of the year, is the second Bruin goalie to win the award. Frankie Brimsek, who was replaced by Gelineau, was the top freshman in the 1938-39 season.

Red Sox Recall Big Walt Dropo

BOSTON, May 2.—(INS)—Big Walter Dropo is expected to be at first base when the Red Sox meet the Cleveland Indians today at Fenway park.

The former University of Connecticut star was recalled from the Sox Louisville farm when Billy Goodman, regular first baseman, fractured his left ankle Sunday.

Goodman is expected to be lost to the club for three weeks.

In 13 games at Louisville this year, Dropo had 12 hits in 47 times at bat for a .255 average. He has two home runs, triple and a double among his dozen hits.

CHICAGO, May 2.—(INS)—The Harlem Globetrotters, sporting a basketball record of 165 victories and only 9 defeats in the 1949-50 season, meet in Chicago today to prepare to live up to their name—with a 50-game tour through nine European countries.

The all-negro team is scheduled to begin their series against another group of professionals, billed as the Stars of America, in Lisbon, Portugal, next Friday night.

Ezzard Charles Faces Checkup

CHICAGO, May 2.—(INS)—National Boxing Association heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles is scheduled for a thorough physical examination Thursday by Dr. Jack Houston, chief medical examiner for the Illinois Athletic Commission.

Charles has been reported ailing from a heart muscle injury which forced indefinite postponement of his title defense against Freddy Beshore, scheduled in Buffalo March 29.

Commission chairman Joe Triner yesterday said Charles requested the examination in Illinois "because it was there I won my title."

Ezzard also is slated to undergo an examination by the New York Athletic Commission's medical department May 11.

Tex Sullivan, manager of Lee Oma, appeared at the commission meeting yesterday to file a claim to Charles' title if he fails the medical examination.

Plan To Divide Basketball Loop

NEW YORK, May 2.—(INS)—The 12-team National Basketball Association will be divided into an Eastern and Western division.

NBA president Maurice Podoloff announced the division yesterday and said that each team in the new setup would play 66 games.

The Eastern division consists of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Syracuse. Chicago, Tri-Cities, Minneapolis, Fort Wayne, Rochester and Indianapolis make up the Western group.

Mierkiewicz Goes Back To Rochester

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—(INS)—Outfielder Ed Mierkiewicz left the St. Louis Cardinals today to report to Rochester of the International league. The Red Birds announced his sale to their farm club last night. He played with Rochester last season and had a batting average of .293.

Walcott-Hoff Bout Signed

CAMDEN, N. J., May 2.—(INS)—The on-again off-again Joe Walcott fight with Germany's heavyweight king Hein Ten Hoff is on again.

Contracts were signed in Mayor George E. Brunner's office in Camden after $13,500 was deposited in a bank for Walcott. The money was put up by Jimmy Friedman, the promoter, as part of the $31,000 guarantee. The remainder is forthcoming.

Walcott's manager, Felix Boechicchio, said the Walcott party will fly to Germany May 10. The bout, to be held in Mannheim, May 28, will have a "neutral" referee, possibly Frenchman Georges Carpentier.

Phil Benditt, who at 5 feet 4 is the smallest man the squad, looms as the prospective star of the 1950 Penn State lacross team.

How do you raise a revolutionist?

The same way you were brought up.

You and your ancestors are just about the greatest revolutionists of all time. When most of the world's people were being pushed around by all-powerful governments, Americans revolted . . . and won freedom from government force and tyranny.

Our Bill of Rights declared that men and women are more important than their governments. A revolutionary idea—and Americans have kept it alive for nearly 200 years!

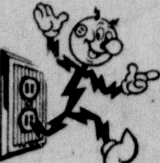

Today, that great idea is in danger. The old idea of all-powerful government has made a comeback. And when government gains power, its people lose precious rights and freedoms.

Even in America, we've been giving more and more power to our federal government. Now you hear people saying, "Let the government take over certain industries and services—the doctors, the railroads, the electric companies."

Most of those people don't want an all-powerful government any more than you do. But when an ambitious big government gets control of more and more things, it becomes socialistic almost automatically. In a socialistic U. S. A., the American Revolution would be dead. There would be no freedoms for you—or your children.

We hope you'll talk this over with your family and friends and fellow-workers. It's the greatest danger America is facing today.

Senators Meet Homestead Grays In Lid-Lifter Tonight

Stock Car Races Wednesday Night

CANFIELD, O., May 2.—The second program of Stock Car racing of the 1950 season at the Canfield Speedway will get underway this Wednesday night, May 3, despite the influx of such experienced drivers as Bucky "Nature Boy" Sager, Frank Canale, Iggy Katona and other Toledo hot shots, the hometown boys held their own in the opening race last Wednesday night, when Barney Barnes of Youngstown, O., roared over the finish line in a brilliant victory.

Gates to the Speedway will open at 6:30 for the early arrivals; late trials at 7:00; and the first event at 8:30.

Blears-Talaber Bout Wednesday

Expect Spectacular Carnival In Arena

Full-nelsons, Hammer-locks, legspreads, arm-stretches, airplane spins, flying-mares, Kangaroo kick, scissors, toe grip and body slam will be displayed in The Arena, Wednesday evening, when a group of eight pro grapplers, five of whom have had exhibitions televised, appear in three exhibitions.

The aggregation is headed by the internationally-known Lord Blears, who, in and out of the ring, effects the speech and mannerism of a cultured Englishman, and Frank Talaber, a husky of Columbus, who knows he is up against a wrestler who can really wrestle when it is required.

It is probable that the main exhibitions will present one of the most spectacular exhibitions of any yet staged here. Blears has a reputation to uphold and nothing would please Talaber more than to pin the Briton's shoulders to the mat, even in an exhibition bout.

Tag Looks Good

In the Tag match or brawl, Bobby Ford of Youngstown, will team with the Mexican heavy-weight champion, Enrique Torres against two television exhibitions, Jim Wright and Don Evans. It will be Ford's first appearance since Gorgeous George did him wrong at Youngstown.

Sandor Kovacs who claims the Hungarian heavy-weight championship is to wrestle Fred Bozic, a veteran, who knows his way around a wrestling ring. Some years ago Fred took on Joe Savoldi, one of the first exponents of the Dropkick, now called the Kangaroo kick.

Judging from the reputation of the wrestlers, Wednesday evening's exhibitions should be made exciting. Should the exhibitionists stage a good show it will alleviate the criticism which followed the last exhibition, and according to the Jefferson A. C., they'll do just that.

New Castle is embarking tonight on a "New Deal" in baseball. "Play Ball," that old familiar cry of the national pastime will ring through the confines of spacious and beautiful P. J. Flaherty Field tonight for the unofficial opening of the 1950 baseball season here, at 8 p. m. (DST), as the Senators meet the famous Homestead Grays.

Will Take Wraps Off

Manager Charles (Chuck) Cronin will take the wraps off of his chosen Middle-Atlantic league squad, revealing a group of the finest young ball players to ever represent this city. Win, lose or draw these "kids" are tops in character and quality.

President Al Scarrazzo, and the board of directors have spent considerable time, money and effort to mould together a ball club that the citizens can be proud of. New Castle Citizens Baseball Inc., has over 200 stockholders all of whom have had a big part in making this year's team possible.

Expect Large Crowd

The game tonight is a prelude to the official opening Friday night of the Middle-Atlantic league, with Vandergrift billed here. The fans are asked to not be too critical tonight, this is the first game under the lights this year, the squad has only had two weeks of training. Give the boys time to get acclimated.

The ticket gates will swing open at 6:30 o'clock. Countless hundreds will file into the ball park. There will be a field that will amaze them for this early in the season. Carl "Buffalo" Ciaella, the veteran groundskeeper had done a magnificent job. The field is dry after a two-day rain.

The game is on.

Homestead Grays 40th

The Homestead Grays will be embarking on their 40th year as a nationally-known ball club tonight. Seward H. Posey, owner, and Sammy Bankhead, playing-manager, are bringing a strong team here tonight. The Grays have just returned from a two-months sojourn through the south playing exhibition games. They are ready to go.

Manager Bankhead is a brother of Dan, who now hurls for the Brooklyn Dodgers, he is a cracker-jack second baseman. The Grays were in the National Negro League for the years 1934 to 1948 and won many championships. Last year the Grays were members of the American Negro League but have gone independent this year. The Grays have won three Negro World titles and 10 Negro National League championships.

Scheduling of this tough outfit for the lid-lifter should give the Senators the stiffest kind of competition.

Lineup in Doubt

Manager Cronin was just a little in doubt as to the starting lineup tonight but will have Bilo, leadoff man, in center, Al Mouton at third, Danny Dondoro at second, Herman Kiel in right, either Dick Ackerman or Tommy Famiglietti in left (Famiglietti reported Monday), Johnny Vizzini at first, Bill Horne or Al "Moose" Dunterman doing the catching, George Eikenberg at shortstop, and on the mound there will be several opening choices—Stan Zedalis, Herb Churchill, Neal Marino and Dean Rothrock, the latter two right-handers, the latter two southpaws.

Cronin has ordered all players on the practice field at 5 o'clock tonight. No workout was held yesterday owing to inclement weather and a wet field.

The Senators so far have played four games and won all of them, defeating Oil City of the Mid-Atlantic League twice, by scores of 18-12 and 14-8. Mercersburg Academy 13-2 and Keedysville 5-2.

We'll see you at the ball park tonight.

County Loop Umps Will Meet Tonight

There will be an important meeting of the Lawrence County league umpires at Carn's tonight at 7:30 o'clock it was announced by President "Dad" Hartman. All umpires are urged to attend as assignments will be made.

SUNSETS TO PRACTICE

Sunset baseball team of the American Legion junior league will have a workout tonight at 6 o'clock at George Washington field. All members of last year's Walmo team are asked to report.

Busy Schedule For Titan Teams

Spring sports activities at Westminster College faced a crowded schedule this week with the track, golf, and baseball teams all set for action.

The baseball team will meet Allegheny on the New Wilmington community field at 3 p.m. today and travel to Beaver Falls Saturday for a game with Geneva. The track team will be in Meadville Wednesday competing against Allegheny.

Two home games are on schedule for the Titan golf squad. It meets Gannon Thursday and Carnegie Tech on Friday. Both matches will be played over the New Castle Field Club course.

Rabbit Project Is Under Way

Project Started At Jordan Farm

Pennsylvania State Game commission has launched a rabbit propagation project at the former Jordan Game farm, at Harlansburg, according to Cal Hooper game protector.

Approximately 200 of the 329 acres will be devoted to rabbit raising.

A fence will be erected soon to keep people out of the refuge. Ten thousand trees and shrubs are being planted to provide cover Hooper stated.

At present there are some rabbits there, likewise pheasants, and the propagation of game means there will be better hunting in this district, as the rabbits, likewise the pheasants raised, will be distributed in various parts of the county.

Action Brings Results
Some time ago the Lawrence County Council of sportsmen, of which George Bolinger, was president, discussed a proposed propagation project.

Clinton B. White offered the motion asking the state to launch such a move and Secretary Eddie Fritz was instructed to communicate with the Game commission.

The council's action has produced results and Game Protector Hooper has been notified by Chief Propagation officer, Earl Greenwood, to proceed with the project.

St. Louis Cardinals Edge Dodgers In Only Game, 3-2

By HOWARD SIGMAND (International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, May 2.—Count the St. Louis Cardinals present and accounted for in the 1950 National League pennant race.

The Redbirds vividly remember how their loose play in the final hectic days of last season's flag battle allowed the Brooklyn Dodgers to "back" into the championship.

They recall, too, that they won their season's series with the Brooks 12 games to 10 last year. The Cardinals are confident that they will win this time around and last night they got off to a running start.

Three Run Ninth
A three-run uprising in the ninth inning gave Eddie Dyer's runners a 3 to 2 victory over the Dodgers and Lefty Joe Hatten.

It was an up-from-the-floor win for the Redbirds. Hatten appeared well on his way to his second consecutive shutout for the first eight innings, but the roof fell in the ninth.

He started the fatal frame by walking Chuck Diering. Enos Slaughter singled, but Hatten retired pinch-hitters Marty Marion and Eddie Kazak on a strike out and an easy fly.

Then Red Schoendienst singled to score Diering, and Hatten was replaced by Willard Ramsdell, the knuckle ball artist.

Pinch-swinging Bill Howerton questioned Ramsdell's artistry with a single that scored Slaughter and then Willie ended everything by wild-pitching in the winning run.

One Rained Out
This was the only game played in the majors yesterday. The scheduled meeting between the Boston Red Sox and the Philadelphia Athletics was postponed because of rain.

It's the west against the east today. The eastern clubs in the National League begin with their first western road trip and the western teams in the American start on their initial eastern jaunt.

UNIVERSAL TO PRACTICE
Universal baseball team will hold a practice tonight at George Washington field at 5:30.

Cincinnati Reds Claim Bob Reis
BOSTON, May 2.—(INS)—Bob "Whitey" Reis, 20-year-old infielder of the Braves, has been claimed for the $10,000 waiver price by the Cincinnati Reds.

Reis, playing third base for the tribe's Eau Claire club, hit .338 last season and was chosen the most valuable player in the northern league. He was a bonus player and could not be farmed out again by the Braves.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

MANAGERS OF CITY BASEBALL League teams will meet at eight o'clock, Thursday night at Carm's to complete plans for the opening of the season, May 7. Player contracts will be presented to league officials. Some managers already have all players signed, or have their consent to play, while others are yet in search of material. Managers should appoint qualified scorers and make it a point to see that box scores of all games should be presented in The News front office slot on the day or night game is played. This goes also for the County loop.

The scorers should fill all totals, and total such accurately. They should use a heavy black pencil, and write legibly. This gives the News Sports staff a break in rewriting the account.

When one box score is missing, the complete standing of the league cannot be compiled. Sports are going to be so voluminous the staff will not have time to telephone various managers the day after a game, to learn how it ended.

When a postponement occurs, said postponement should be recorded with The News. Managers who cooperate with The News sports staff will learn that bigger crowds will turn out for their games if fans are kept fully informed.

Joe Ritchie, who 20 years ago, was mixed up with the Tin Ear fraternity, is anxious to again try his hand at developing boxers. Jack Bryan, who for a time was with The News, and who penned cartoons of fistic men who boxed in the Jolly Bowl, is in the engraving business in Sharon. Dick Davis, the ex-floor coach, would like to see an Old-Timers' game here this summer at Flaherty Field. Carl Reebie was one of the best infielders local baseball had some decades ago. City officials, from the mayor on down the line, are ready to help baseball teams this season. However, weather has been such, considerable progress has been stalled. Parody De Marco, no relation to Frank of the Seventh Ward, is one of Gotham's busiest lightweights. Troutmen have not yet caught any exceptionally large fish. If some of the Senators' hurlers could use a few of Attorney Frank Moretti's technicalities, they would stop a lot of hitting this season.

Middleground

Favored Today

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 2.—(INS)—King Ranch's Middle-ground, a son of the 1936 Kentucky Derby winner, is favored over 10 other horses today in the 13th running of the $10,000 added Derby trial at Churchill Downs.

Middleground will be ridden by veteran Johnny Longden, who will pilot Your Host, the Winter Book favorite on Derby day.

The King Ranch racer is expected to have stiff competition from the Calumet farm's entry of Theory and All Blue and from Brookmeade's Greek Ship.

Your Host will not run today, but scotched rumors that he is ailing yesterday with a snappy mile an eighth in 1:52 and a mile and a quarter in 2:06 2/5 in a morning workout yesterday.

Penn State Tops Titan Golfers

Westminster college golfers were defeated 6-1 by Penn State linksmen yesterday afternoon in a match at State College.

Dick Whittaker, New Castle, playing in the No. 6 spot, salvaged the only man victory of the afternoon by shooting a 75 to defeat Munro of Penn State 6-5.
